WHY GERMANY?

The Best Destination for Indian Medical Graduates

Germany offers Indian MBBS graduates a clear, structured pathway to practice medicine in one of the world's most advanced healthcare systems.

Zero Tuition Fees

Medical PG training in Germany has no tuition fees. You train as a paid Assistenzarzt (resident doctor) in German hospitals from day one.

Earn While You Train

Assistenzarzt salary ranges from €4,500 to €5,500 per month. Your investment is recovered within 3–4 months of starting work.

World-Class Healthcare

Germany's healthcare system ranks among the top globally. You'll train with advanced equipment in modern hospitals and university clinics.

Permanent Residency

EU Blue Card route offers PR eligibility in just 21 months. Germany actively recruits international doctors to fill its shortage of 20,000+ physicians.

Globally Recognized Degree

German Facharzt (specialist) qualification is recognized worldwide. After completing your training, you can practice in any EU country.

Structured Pathway

Clear step-by-step process: Language → Defizitbescheid → Visa → FSP Exam → Approbation → Assistenzarzt position → Facharzt.

YOUR JOURNEY

Step-by-Step Pathway to Medical PG in Germany

From your first German class in India to your Assistenzarzt position and permanent residency in Germany.

1 German Language Training (A1 – B1)

6–12 MONTHS • INDIA (ONLINE)

Start learning German from scratch. Our structured programme takes you from A1 to B1 level, covering both general and medical vocabulary essential for the FSP exam and clinical practice.

2 Document Preparation & Translation

PARALLEL WITH LANGUAGE TRAINING

Complete document compilation including degree certificates, transcripts, internship completion, certified German translation, Letter of Recommendation, and motivation letter.

3 Defizitbescheid (Deficit Letter) Application

3–6 MONTHS PROCESSING

Apply for the deficit letter from German medical authority (Landesprüfungsamt). This confirms which exams you need to pass for your German medical license.

4 D16 Visa & Travel to Germany

2–3 MONTHS

Complete visa documentation, open blocked account (Sperrkonto), arrange travel insurance, book visa appointment at German Embassy, and travel to Germany.

5 B2/C1 Medical German & FSP Exam

6–12 MONTHS • GERMANY

Advanced medical German training in Germany. Prepare for and pass the Fachsprachprüfung (FSP) — the medical language exam required for your temporary license.

6 Approbation & Observership

3–6 MONTHS • GERMANY

Pass the Kenntnisprüfung (knowledge exam) for full Approbation. Complete 2–3 month observership at a private clinic for hands-on clinical exposure.

7 Assistenzarzt Position & PR

ONGOING • GERMANY

Start as Assistenzarzt (€4,500–€5,500/month). Apply for EU Blue Card. Eligible for Permanent Residency within 21 months via fast-track Blue Card route.
